What will I do at Camp?

There are a ton of great activities planned for the next Youth Leadership Camp. The following is an example of the day-by-day listing of the activities.

DAY 1

Arrive at camp, break into small groups, meet your fellow campers, learn about cooperative governance and elect a board member for your group, and hear an amazing leadership speaker.

DAY 2

Enjoy another look at leadership, ride a gondola to the top of Mt. Werner, play volleyball, swim, and watch a high-voltage display.

DAY 3

Run for an ambassador position; tour the Craig Power Plant and a solar farm; watch as your hair stands on end—really—during the Story Behind the Switch presentation; and show us your talent.

DAY 4

Float down the Colorado River and dance under the mountain stars.

DAY 5

Learn about birds of prey with HawkQuest, managing conflict and setting goals, build an electric system, and celebrate at the banquet.

DAY 6

Say goodbye to your new friends. Cherish all your amazing camp memories.

My time at Camp...

“The rafting trip with such amazing people is an adventure I will never forget.”

“I will never forget how easy it was to make new relationships with people from all over the four states.”

“I will always remember the people I met throughout this trip. I have made some great friends and I know those relationships will not stop now that camp is over.”

“I was most inspired by the fact that everyone was able to be themselves and everyone was so nice. They inspired me to be more like that when I go back home.”

“I think I will always remember the positive attitude everyone had.”

“The counselors and ambassadors really inspired me to get out of my shell and embrace new things.”

Just Another Camp?

Right now you are thinking that this is the zillionth camp brochure you have received and that this camp is just like all the rest. It costs a bunch, you won't know anyone there, it's going to be awkward, and you won't get anything out of going except maybe a sunburn.

✗ Guess Again

This camp is free, you are going to make life-long friends, learn about yourself and build new leadership skills that you will use forever...
